

Rev. Fred and Dorothy Holzimmer

The Holzimmers were born in Michigan. Fred studied at the Detroit Business University and Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. Dorothy also went to M.B.I. They have served as missionaries to Cameroon since 1951. They have three children. Fred makes all the business arrangements for the group and also participates in the concert program.

Rev. Samuel Lysonge

Pastor Lysonge prepared himself for the ministry at the Ogbo-mosho Seminary in Nigeria. He graduated in June 1969 and is now serving as the pastor of the church at Soppo, Cameroon.

(Pictured on the front cover left to right front row)

Claudia Fokam, 17, is a fifth year student at SBC, one of seven children, the father a catechist in the Mambe Presbyterian Church, very active in the work of Christ at SBC, being chosen as the Religion Prefect of her class in the lower classes, and then Music Prefect of the whole school in her senior year. She is outstanding in musical ability, and wishes to pursue higher studies in mathematics. Grace Besong, 19, is a fifth year student at SBC, born in Mambe Division, the third of fourteen children whose father is a Custom's Officer, Cameroon Government, is active in Christian activities in school and the Presbyterian Church.

Miranda Bell, 17, is a 1969 graduate of SBC, born in Victoria to a family of ten whose parents are members of Ebenezer Baptist, Victoria, active in Christian activities in school and Ebenezer Baptist, has been on two SBC Choir tours in Cameroon.

Ruth Esapa, 21, is a fourth year student at BTTC, and a native of the Bafor tribe in the Kumba Division. Ruth is a Baptist Christian and very active in the religious activities in the school, especially the Bakweri Choir of which she is the leader.

Dorothy Ikome, 16, is a fourth year student at SBC the eldest of six children, born in Victoria to Christian parents (teaches, CBM School), is active in the Mizpah Baptist Church, when at ten she confessed Christ and was baptized and is active in Saker and 3-H Girls.

Marita Chie, 19, is a graduate of SBC and a fourth year student at BTTC, the sixth child of Christian parents from Bamenda Division, was baptized in 1960 and has been active worker in the Baptist Church and Christian groups such as 3-H Girls.