

(Left to right middle row)

Fritz Eseke, 23, is a fourth year BTTC student, son of Bakweri parents living near Buea, capital of West Cameroon, enabled to attend school through a local government scholarship to BTTC, active in the school's Gospel Team, translates for foreign persons visiting Cameroon.

Stella Nwigwe, 18, is a fifth year student at SBC, born in Buea, Cameroon, the only child of Anglican Christian parents whose mother was a journalist. Her desire is to promote the work of Christ in Cameroon as a doctor, when she completes her university training, for which she has a scholarship.

Juliana Ndoko, 16, is a fourth year student at SBC, born in the Buea area of Bakweri parents. Her mother is a Baptist which was instrumental in Juliana's early conversion in primary school.

Daisy Haddison, 19, is a senior at SBC, the third of six children born of Bakweri parents whose father is Choir Master, Ebenezer Baptist, Victoria, and Headmaster, Baptist Primary School, accepted Christ at the age of 12 in the Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Sinota Shiro, 18, a fifth year student at SBC, born in Douala, Cameroon, of a Moslem father and a Baptist mother. She came to Saker Baptist College in 1965 where she came to know Christ as her Savior. Her abilities and interests are in Science.

Sophie Woloa, 22, is a teacher at SBC, born in Great Soppo, Cameroon, of Baptist parents whose father was a teacher for the Cameroon Baptist Mission. Her father died when she was six months old. Sophie was trained as a teacher in BTTC, and also worked as librarian.

Fred Achu, is a Baptist fourth year student at BTTC, born in Bamenda in 1948, the sixth of eight children, the son of a farmer, received believer's baptism in 1968, and plans to teach in the Baptist school system.

Christiana Ebusi, 19, is a fifth year student at SBC, born in Buea, the youngest of two children whose father is a clerk in the Prime Minister's Office, was brought up in a Christian Presbyterian home and is active in Christian activities.

(Left to right top row)

Jesse Nfor, 21, is a fourth year student at BTTC, son of a Chief in Binka, Donga Division, and the last born of his mother. His mother, a Baptist, brought Jesse up to know the Lord. Jesse is active in the Christian activities at BTTC and a member of a Gospel Team.

Emmanuel Nfor, 23, a student at BTTC, born in the Donga Division in 1946 when the locusts last visited the area, came to know Christ at Ndu CBM School. It is Emmanuel's desire to bring others to know Christ.

Westerman Modika, 21, is a fourth year student at BTTC, a native of Meme Division, born to parents of mean income, struggled and prayed much to find his way into BTTC, has taken Christ as his leader for life.

Japheth Koni, 22, is a fourth year BTTC student, a Grasslander born in Wowo, Donga Division, to parents who were farmers, was influenced by his Christian mother, accepted Christ in 1956, and taught in a CBM School before entering BTTC in 1966.

Ernest Mafanny, 20, is a fourth year student at BTTC, born in Buea of Bakweri parents, the eldest of five boys, is a Baptist Christian and active in the Christian activities of BTTC.